Homestaging Checklist

Preparing your home for showing to clients is one of the most important things a seller must do. Taking the time to do it right can make the difference between getting the sale or not. Use this list as a starting point and remember what made you like about your home in the first place.

Try to make it show like a model!

Selling your home is not to be looked at personally. This is a business transaction. Once the for sale sign goes on the front yard, the house is no longer yours and the objective is to attract as much attention and interest as possible to maximize your investment.
